Air Traffic Protest

Ray Campbell, standing, presents a list of 113 names of Canyon businessmen, professional people and tradesmen who favor a traffic control plan other than one presented by the City Commission. Felix Pierce, commissioner, looks on. Campbell was one of eight businessmen who attended the commission meeting Thursday to protest plans for 23rd Street.

Commission Hears Businessmen Plan

BY CARROLL WILSON
Several businessmen with interests on 23rd Street protested the installation of medians and the elimination of parking on that street Thursday night at a City Commission meeting and submitted nine of their own recommendations for traffic control.

The eight businessmen were also instrumental in circulating a referendum petition in recent weeks. Ray Campbell, one of the men, said the petition contains 400 names, including 20 per cent of the voters in the last city election.

The petition was not presented Thursday night. Campbell said the businessmen wanted first to appeal to the commissioners to change their Dec. 5 motion, which initiated action on the 23rd Street plan.

The sometimes-stormy 3 1/2-hour session ended much as it had begun with city commissioners individually reiterating that they will work toward formulating the best possible plan for traffic control on 23rd.

Following regularly scheduled business by the commission, the floor was given by Mayor Paul Linsey to the businessmen.

First speaker was E. T. Cummings, owner of Buffalo Bookstore. Cummings read from a speech prepared by Charles Donnell, theater owner.

"This group is here to ask you to reconsider your decision of Dec. 5" and try to control traffic without the loss of parking," he said.

Cummings said the group would rather not have a referendum.

In listing the group's recommendations for traffic control, Cummings said the traffic problem on 23rd is "only from 7:30 a.m. to 8 a.m. in the morning, and another 30 minutes at noon from 12 to 12:30."

"This is only five days a week, Monday through Friday only one hour daily."

Cummings said no traffic problem exists on 23rd in afternoon, evenings, weekends and holidays. He said, too, there is no traffic problem from mid-May to mid-September.

Cummings estimated that total yearly congested hours is about 160. He said total hours in a year are 8,736.

"The question is for 160 hours yearly of congested traffic, should the people living here and those making a living have to endure hardships and

FRANK KIMBROUGH

JOE KERBEL

Director May Retire As Head

There was indication Friday that Frank Kimbrough will step aside as athletic director of West Texas State University Sept. 1, 1969.

Dr. James P. Cornette, WTSU president, confirmed persistent rumors that a shakeup in the university athletic department is in the mill. He pointed out that Kimbrough will reach the age of 65 during the current academic year.

He said there has been some discussion of making Head Football Coach Joe Kerbel both football coach and athletic director with Kimbrough remaining with the school as Kerbel's assistant.

Dr. Cornette said he has discussed this possibility with both Kerbel and Kimbrough.

"I don't know what we're going to do," he went on. "I haven't even talked to the athletic committee about it."

Dr. Cornette said regulations laid down by the board of regents makes retirement of university administrative personnel mandatory at the age of 70.

He quoted the board as having stated that it is desirable for such personnel to surrender administrative status on Sept. 1 following attainment of the age of 65.

Dr. Cornette said he has discussed the board's wishes with all department heads and has talked to Kimbrough in terms of his surrendering his duties as athletic director and becoming associate athletic director without administrative responsibilities.

The WTSU president said Kimbrough's status has not been discussed with the board of regents and that it probably will not be discussed before the May meeting.

Dr. Cornette scotched a rumor that Kerbel would become full-time athletic director and that his successor as Buffalo football coach would be Gene Mayfield.

Cornette said no offer has been made to Mayfield who cur-

Bufs Blast To Victory Over Houston Cats 86-76

The West Texas State University Buffs, hampered much of the first half by the absence of top scorer Simmie Hill, pulled off an upset victory Saturday night over previously ranked University of Houston 86 to 76 in Houston.

Hill entered the game with but four minutes remaining in the initial period, but still managed to score 19 points.

Houston, backed by the height of 6-9 Ken Spain, 6-7 Theodis Lee and 6-7 Melvin Bell, were unable to use their advantage through most of the game as the shorter but spunkier Bufs controlled the boards and pressured for the ball.

Dale Blaut led the Bufs in handing Houston its second loss in its last 61 home outings with 21 points. He was followed by Mike Mitchell with 20.

The Bufs led most of both halves, with only a few moments in the second stanza giving fans the jitters.

The West Texas pulled ahead for good in the first half with 13:38 remaining on the clock when they made it 8 to 7. From there they stretched their lead to 13 points at one time, but slackened off and led by a mere five at the half, 37 to 32.

Utilizing a tough zone defense and on-again-off-again full court press, the Bufs held Houston in the first part of the second half, but slowly the WT lead diminished to a tie and then a Houston lead.

The Bufs, following a timeout, recovered quickly and again the scoreboard swelled by the minute with WT scores.

Hill, who had a terrific night on the boards, socked in 17 of his 19 points in the second half.

Following Hill in scoring were Gale Rhine with 10 and James McCloud with 12.

High point man for the Houston Cougars was Olie Taylor with 17, followed by George

Hearing Bares Evidence About Marijuana Case

Justice of the Peace W. A. "Bill" Wilson has postponed a decision on a preliminary hearing held Friday for Robert William Brown, 23, charged with possession of marijuana, pending preparation of the hearing transcript.

Brown appeared before Wilson and was represented by Bob Gibbins, a Plainview attorney.

Witnesses included Chief of Police Calvin Costley, W. G. Dunn, forensic chemist for the city of Amarillo, and two high school and college age informants who aided city police in the Brown investigation.

The first state witness, a 21-year-old West Texas State University freshman, told the court he and two high school friends talked to Brown the night of Dec. 10 at an Amarillo dance hall.

The witness said one of his friends asked to borrow 25 cents from Brown and Brown then offered to sell the three a quantity of marijuana.

"He told us we could come by his home and buy the marijuana," the witness said. "He said he had about $15 worth."

Under questioning by Randall County Dist. Atty. George Dowlen, the witness said the three agreed to the deal, left the dance hall and drove to the Canyon home of Costley.

The witness said they told Costley of the offer and on Dec. 20, the chief gave them $5 to purchase a quantity of marijuana.

That afternoon, he said, the three went to Brown's trailer home in Canyon and purchased marijuana contained in a kitchen match box.

Under examination by the defense, the witness said he had known Brown three or four years.

He also said he has been working with Costley several years on cases involving vandalism.

The witness said he had never smoked marijuana.

Costley related much the same story to the court under direct examination. He said he took the match box of marijuana to W. G. Dunn in Amarillo for analysis.

Cross examination revealed that Costley had talked to the three informants following the Dec. 20 purchase.

Dunn told the court he performed three tests on the substance in the match box and

Girl Eagles Take Victory In Memphis Tournament

Canyon High School Girl Eagles tipped Quittage 69-68 to win the Memphis girls basketball tournament in a game that went into two overtimes.

The score was deadlocked 58-58 at the end of regular play. Each team scored four points in the first three minutes overtime period.

The Eagles sank 7 points in the second overtime while Quittage could muster only 6.

Eagle forward Pam Richardson had what was probably the best night of her career Saturday night. She poured in 17 field goals and 9 free throws for a spectacular 43 points to spark her team to victory.

Susan Swartzell was second with 16 points. Linda Lehman scored 10.

The Eagles edged ahead in the first quarter and led that period 16-10. They cooled in the second and the score was tied 27-27 at half time.

The Eagles trailed 2 points 41-39 at the end of the third and the score was 58-58 at the end of regular play.

"We felt like our kids did a tremendous job," commented Coach Bob Schneider. "We started off slow in the second quarter and Quittage picked up 6 points on us to tie the ball game by half time."

"We trailed two and three points numerous times during the ball game. Our kids kept their poise and did their best when it counted."

Schneider praised his forwards and singled out four of his guards for commendation. These include Cheryl Davis, Beverly Brown, Jenna Thompson and Cindy Jones.

In previous tournament action, the girls defeated Memphis 72-22 Thursday night.

On Friday the Girl Eagles whipped Paducah, 59-33.

Canyon hit 15 of 27 free throws for 55 per cent.

The Girl Eagles will play Spearman Tuesday night on the home court.

Grant Funded For Studies At University

A $38,254 grant has been allocated by the National Science Foundation in support of physical science programs for junior high school teachers at West Texas State University.

Announcement of the allocation came from the office of U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough.

The program will include 30 teachers from Amarillo, Pampa, Dumas and Hereford.

It will include a six-week institute next summer and nine meetings during the next academic year.

The Foundation made the grant under the cooperative college-school science program. Dr. Claude Boatman of the WTSU chemistry department, is in charge of the program.

He said Thursday he has received no official notice of the funding.

He said the funds were requested during August.

Eagles Frazzle Fritch, 106-49

The Canyon Eagles put on a ferocious first quarter attack Friday night which so dizzied the Fritch roundballers that they never recovered throughout the game.

The Eagles mutilated Fritch 106-49 before a hometown crowd.

The Canyon team took the floor at the game's opening with break-neck speed and unmatched agility.

The first quarter saw Fritch do everything wrong but make baskets for the opposing team. Led by the scoring of Jackie Thrasher with eight points, the Eagles were ahead 27-7 at the first quarter buzzer.

The second quarter read much the same with Fritch overcoming the jitters somewhat and making a few baskets. Chris Gerald of Canyon led the Eagles in the second stanza assault with 10 points.

Gerald was leading first half scorer with 16 points. The first half ended with Canyon holding a huge margin, 55-22.

The second half was almost like a re-run with new actors as Canyon maintained a lead twice that of the visitors.

The Eagles fired in 33 points in the third period to Fritch's 15.

Thrasher and Kyle Sunderman were top scorers in the third stanza with eight points each.

Coach B. B. Kendrick, during the second half, began substituting freely, as the entire team saw action.

Third quarter score was 88 to 37.

Canyon slowed up a bit in the fourth quarter, allowing Fritch 12 points and poking in 18 for themselves.

Ronnie Hager was high scorer in the final quarter with five points.

Top Canyon scorer was Thrasher with 24 points, followed closely by Sunderman with 23, Gerald with 17, Steve Butler with 11, Lon Conner with 10, Hager with seven, Bobby

Class Begins At WTSU

Classes at West Texas State University resume at 8 a.m. Monday for a week of study and preparation before final examinations.

Two activities are scheduled during the week to break the monotony of late night cramming.

The Campus Christian Community will sponsor Jean-Paul Sartre's "No Exit," in film version at 7:15 p.m. Tuesday in the student union building ballroom.

The Rev. J. C. Pedersen of the CCC said the film is a version of the one-act play by Sartre and is a theological statement on the condition of man.

The play takes place with three actors in a room within a complex which resembles the interior of a hotel. Wednesday, from 3 to 10 p.m., the Student Activities Council will sponsor a cartoon-a-thon, according to Frank Castleberry, student union building director.

The cartoon-a-thon will be in the student union building ballroom.

Among shows expected to be seen are ones by Laurel and Hardy and W. C. Fields. Both activities are free.

office were Sheriff L. S. Johnston, County Judge Carroll Brown, Commissioner Precinct 3 Glenn Dowlen and Justice of the Peace W. A. "Bill" Wilson.

Funeral Held For C. E. Myers

Funeral services for Charles Edwin "Buddy" Myers, 37, were conducted Saturday at LaGrone Funeral Chapel with Rev. Carlos McLeod, pastor of San Jacinto Baptist Church in Amarillo, officiating.

Mr. Myers was pronounced dead-on-arrival at Southwest Osteopathic Hospital in Amarillo Thursday morning following a heart attack.

He was born at Shawnee, Oklahoma and married the former Martha Steen of Canyon in 1952 at Clovis, New Mexico. He was a veteran of the Korean War and a member of the First Church of God of Shawnee. He was bricklayer foreman for Southwest Brick Company in Amarillo and was a member of the bricklayers' union there. He had been a resident of Amarillo about 16 years.

Interment was at Memory Gardens Cemetery, under the direction of LaGrone Funeral Home. Serving as pallbearers were Dale Tarbet, Gayle Auflager, Bob Brown, Vernon Yarbrough, Keith Hodges, Edward Meckley, Mark Gerken and Leon Haddox.

Survivors include his wife, Martha; a son, Jeff, and daughters, Leslie Fay and Tammie, all of the family home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L.H. Myers of Pampa; and a sister, Mrs. Wanda Jinks of Borger.

News Brief

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Geary Recklin and family during the holidays was her brother, Raymond Bailey, and family of Fort Worth. The group visited with their mother, Mrs. Lloyd Bailey, in Amarillo on Christmas Day.

Dear Mr. Martin:

Help! I was only joshin'. Since my recent statement, which hopefully remains buried in the Canyon News' archives, on the space effort, friends, acquaintances, and strangers have placed me on a level somewhere between an un-American iconoclast and the more sympathetic "loony Leon." Even my family, both of whom are solidly behind the space program, now tolerate me with a resigned air of patronage. "Just leave it to Dad," they say, "to destroy our community relations with some bonehead statement."

When the nice lady reporter called, I thought it to be a simple survey of the number watching the space shot. As a result, I made several ill-chosen remarks which were intended to be humorous, but most assuredly were not meant to be set in the cold, sober type of a lead story. While the statements were hardly Rowan and Martin caliber, it WAS, after all, 8:30 a.m., and the nice lady DID laugh politely.

Letter To The Editor

Now, let's set the muddled record straight. While I'm not an avid follower of the space flights, I have the usual admiration for the achievements that any normal American might have. Also, it is my fervent hope that I'm only slightly "loonier" than that same average American.

So, how about a deal? If you'll print this plea, I'll conduct any subsequent interviews with the nice lady in a deadly serious tone.

"Retracting" yours, Leon Trekell (Ed. Note: We are forwarding by return mail an application blank for membership in the Flat Earth Society.)

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stewart during the holidays have been her daughters, Mrs. C. J. Fenoglio and daughter, Debby, of Wichita Falls, Norma Perkins and Mrs. Christine Bacho of Houston.

Show Group Sets Meet

Final details for the Randall County Junior Livestock Show and Sale will be worked out at a meeting of the show officers and committee members Tuesday night.

The meeting will be held at the Livestock Building at 7:30 o'clock, according to Joe Turpin, president.

Athletic Director

(An Editorial)

It now appears likely that Frank Kimbrough will step aside as athletic director at West Texas State University Sept. 1, 1969.

When this takes place we do not think it would be in the best interests of the institution or its program to wed the job of athletic director to the duties of head coach in any field of athletic endeavor.

If West Texas State University is ever to be accepted into any major conference, it must have a well-balanced athletic program.

To put it bluntly, a coach who doubles as athletic director would be understandably prone to weight the program in favor of his particular sport. The entire program, the institution and the Texas Panhandle would be the losers.

We have long maintained that the post of athletic director at West Texas State University is a full time job.

It is no secret that West Texas State is trying to get acceptance into the Missouri Valley Conference. If we are to achieve this goal, there's going to be plenty for an athletic director to do in the years ahead.

Buffalo Bowl will need enlarging. The gymnasium in which the Buffs play basketball won't seat enough people to provide a gate sufficient to bring top opponents to Canyon.

The Buffs can play in Amarillo's Civic Center but this tends to remove the basketball program from the campus and can have bad results.

West Texas State needs an adequate gymnasium.

A dynamic, imaginative athletic director can be a prime mover in getting the physical facilities we will need for participation in the MVC.

He also can devote much of his thought to bringing to our campus top athletes who also are top scholars. This will not only improve our win, loss records but will also enhance the academic image of the institution.

Coach Joe Kerbel is both dynamic and imaginative. As full-time athletic director he would dedicate himself to the well-rounded program we must have.

We do not doubt for one minute that he would deliver.

We do not believe he should be both athletic director and head football coach.

One of the finest high school football coaches in Texas has already announced himself ready to respond if the head coaching job at his alma mater beckons.

He is Coach Gene Mayfield---a man who is no stranger to West Texas State University football fans. He quarterbacked the Buffs under Kimbrough.

The team of Kerbel as athletic director, Mayfield as football coach and Dennis Walling as basketball coach would be hard to beat. We'd like for the people who guide the destiny of West Texas State to give this combination some serious thought.

Mrs. Small Dies Saturday

Mrs. Etta Marie Small, 81, of 1116 Hillcrest Drive, died Saturday morning in Neblett Hospital where she had been a patient three weeks.

Funeral services will be at 10:30 a.m. Monday in LaGrone Funeral Chapel with the Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

Pallbearers will be Pat Sullivan, Joe Hooper, Jim Christopher, Ralph Harbin, J. B. Hickman and Jack Jennings.

Honorary pallbearers will be deacons of the First Baptist Church, Pat Britain, Roscoe Davis, William B. Davis, J. D. Barker, Levi Cole, Aubrey Crossland and Joe Gidden. Burial will be in Memory Gardens Cemetery.

Mrs. Small has lived in Canyon 47 years, coming here from Eastland. She was a member of the First Baptist Church, the King's Daughter Sunday School class and the church's WMU.

She was preceded in death by her husband, George N., who died in January 1963.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Marvin Fite of the home; sons, Morris of Wichita Falls, Dr. Ray Small of El Paso and Carl of Amarillo; nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Newspaper Postage Increased

Postal rates for newspapers and magazines and other material mailed at the second-class rate was increased January 1, Postmaster Lee Roy Moreland reminded second-class mailers today.

The increase results from the postage rate law enacted in December 1967, which raised most second-class rates in three annual steps. Postmaster Moreland pointed out. The January 1, 1969 hike was the second phase of the increase. The first phase took effect January 7, 1968, and the third step will go into effect January 1, 1970.

The second-class rate increase affects general interest, nonprofit and classroom publications.

Rates also went up January 1 for controlled circulation publications. These are primarily trade, technical and industrial journals which generally do not charge a subscription fee and are not eligible to be mailed at second class rates. The 1967 postal rate law called for a three-step raise for controlled circulation publications, to be effective the same dates as the second-class increases.

Except for home-county mailings, postal rates for newspapers and magazines mailed second-class are based on the weight of the publication, the amount of advertising it contains, and the distance it is mailed.

Effective January 1, rates for editorial or non-advertising matter in commercial publications was increased from 3 to 3.2 cents per pound. Rates for advertising content depend on the distance the publication is mailed. These zone rates now range from 4.6 to 15 cents per pound of advertising content. The new advertising zone range will be 4.9 to 16 cents.

There are special lower second-class rates for classroom publications and publications of nonprofit organizations. These rates also were increased January 1.

Postmaster Moreland said that second-class or controlled circulation mailers who need more detailed information on the new rates should contact the Post Office where their publications are mailed.

Letter Approves 87 Plan

C. W. "Chili" Smith, engineer for the Texas Highway Department district in Amarillo, said Thursday he has received a letter approving the designation of U. S. 87 between Amarillo and Lubbock as an interstate highway.

Smith said the letter, a copy of one sent to the state highway engineer, designates the highway as Interstate 27.

The letter is from Lowell K. Bridwell, federal highway administrator.

Smith said the letter, although indicating approval of the highway, does not authorize the department to begin work on the project.

Smith said he has not yet received authorization on the project.

inconveniences for the remaining 8,576 hours?" he asked.

The group's recommendations included the following:

- Place stop and go lights at all intersections where traffic is congested and synchronize the lights to keep traffic moving at a constant rate.
- A speed limit of 25 miles per hour from 10th Avenue to 1st Avenue on 23rd Street, from 22nd Street through 25th Street on 4th Avenue, and 22nd Street through 24th Street on 5th Avenue. Thirty miles per hour limit south on 23rd from the first overpass to the intersection of Spur 48 north of West Texas State University.
- Traffic lights be installed at 10th Avenue, 9th Avenue, 5th Avenue, 4th Avenue, 3rd Avenue, 2nd Avenue, 24th and 25th Streets on 4th Avenue, and at Spur 48 and U. S. 87.
- Cummings said this recommendation would "eliminate the need for any medians at intersections."
- City Commissioners and County Commissioners work with WTSU in preparing an arrangement to provide as many entrances to the WTSU parking area as they have exits "to overcome the traffic bottleneck which now exists on the north side of campus."
- Install and enforce speed limit signs and time limit signs. Suggest one-hour parking from 8 a.m. to noon on 22nd and 24th Streets on 4th Avenue and on 23rd Street where businesses are involved. Install no-left-turn and no-right-turn signs where necessary.
- The city take over maintenance of Texas 217 from 23rd Street west to U. S. 60. Along with this, return angle parking on each side of 4th Avenue from 18th Street west to 13th Street. Then, place parking signs around the town square and on 4th Avenue from 17th Street through 15th Street.

- Put a policeman on duty two hours per day at 1st, 2nd and 4th Avenues on 23rd Street during heavy traffic hours.
- Pave large space on new city hall location and allow clerks and businesses without back door parking, to park all day free.

The original Dec. 5 motion by the commissioners requested the Texas Highway Department to install medians on 23rd Street and for the commission to make way to fund signal lighting systems for the street.

Wayne Sherrell, traffic engineer for Lubbock, presented a traffic renovation plan to the commissioners Dec. 5.

Sherrell's plan calls for improved signal devices and medians and for parking to be eliminated on 23rd Street along its full length from North 3rd Avenue to south of town.

Under the plan, parking would be eliminated on 2nd, 4th, and 5th Avenues from 300 feet on either side of the 23rd Street intersection.

Left turn lanes were also called for at each intersection with left turn signals to be installed at controlled intersections.

The proposal included the possibility of installing a signal light at either 9th or 10th Avenue.

Following Cummings' recommendations, Campbell presented a list of 113 names— all of them business people, professionals and tradesmen— who Campbell said want "to keep medians from being put in and to make use of parking in town."

Campbell said the city's proposed plan would create nine empty buildings and possibly 14.

Campbell said the referendum petition has been completed and signed, but "we don't want to present it—we don't want to force an election."

He said "we called an election, I've picked up around town that there'd be the biggest stink ever produced in this town. It'd split this town wide open."

He concluded by asking the commissioners to give the businessmen an answer immediately.

Mayor Lindsey said traffic on 23rd Street has been a problem which commissioners have worked on five years. He said much time and study went into the present plan before it was presented.

He said he feels public streets are not designed for parking areas, and although he is in favor of using them for parking wherever possible, the city's first responsibility lies in providing safe traffic even when it is necessary to restrict parking.

The mayor also asked the businessmen if parking is really the main problem of business.

"Is parking the main factor in failing business?" he asked.

As an illustration, the mayor said "you can go down on Polk Street in Amarillo today and those buildings are identically the way they were 50 years ago."

"This same thing applies here," he said.

Lindsey said if businessmen have the building, the merchandise and so on, they will have the business also.

"We're to the point where something has to be done (about the traffic on 23rd)," he said.

"It boils down to what are we going to do."

The mayor said the commissioners "feel like this (the plan) is the solution."

In connection with Campbell's request for an immediate answer, the mayor said "as far as to back up and retract what we've done, I would vote no."

He said if the council wants to go to the public and educate them on the problem— "I'll go along on anything."

Commissioner Jim Christopher told the businessmen it is their prerogative on presentation of the petition.

In relation to Campbell's statement about splitting the town, Christopher said "we've got a rip down the middle now."

City Manager Paul Davis, called upon to voice his opinion by the mayor, said parking is not the taxpayers' problem.

Campbell later altered his request for an immediate answer for the businessmen and asked that commissioners answer before April 1.

Director . . .

rently is coaching at Odessa.

Contacted in Odessa Saturday morning, Mayfield, who quarterbacked the Buffs under Kimbrough back in 1950, said he has not been contacted but would definitely be interested in the job if an offer were forthcoming.

"I think anyone would be interested," said Mayfield whose success as a high school mentor has given him excellent credentials.

Frank Kimbrough is a member of a football family. He is a brother of famed Jarring John Kimbrough, a Texas A & M grid great.

Kimbrough came to the West Texas State campus as head football coach in 1947. Three years later he guided the Buffs to their greatest season in history.

They won nine games and lost only one. They went on to beat the Cincinnati Bearcats in the Sun Bowl. Kimbrough's field general that season was Gene Mayfield.

During his tenure he was architect of 54 Buffalo victories. His bowl record stands at three wins and one tie.

His senior college coaching record, compiled at Hardin-Simmons, Baylor and West Texas State, is an impressive 112 wins, 78 losses and eight ties.

He became athletic director in 1957 and one of his first goals was to raise money for construction of Buffalo Bowl. The stadium was completed in 1959.

Kerbel became head coach here in 1960 and in nine seasons has pushed the Buffaloes into the national spotlight.
